

Dear Customers and Suppliers,

RE: COVID-19 LOCKDOWN

As we stand together as one nation in South Africa during these challenging times, we also stand as one in support of all around the world in these challenging times to combat the spread of COVID-19.

On Monday evening our President addressed the Nation as one, announcing a 21-day lockdown effective Midnight 26th March. The Rigifoam group of companies are NOT an “essential services” company and will comply with our President’s plan.

Effective, close of business on the 26th March 2020, we will be in LOCKDOWN mode, this is across all our facilities in the Republic. Production will restart on Monday 20th April (official 21 days ends Thursday 16th April), the Offices will be open on Friday 17th April.

During this time our Sales and Marketing team will be available on Mobile phones, Emails, our webpage interaction will continue as normal. Our switchboard calls will be diverted to internal sales staff as other countries not on Lockdown and customers offering essential services can still receive support. Technical support teams are also on standby for telephonic support. All the above will be working from home.
